Marco Henn

COMMERCIAL STUDENT PRODUCER

Hi, I'm Marco and I love working with creative people to tell stories.

My focus is on emotional storytelling as well as high quality advertising messages.

Motivated, reliable, ambitious, team player, helpful, humorous.

I love big challenges, possess perseverance, stay calm in every stressful second and keep the overview.

Where humor and professionalism are combined, that's where I am.

Life quote: "Live small - think big".

„The producer is like the conductor of an orchestra.
Maybe he can't play every instrument,
but he knows what every instrument should sound like.“
